OFFICERS' COMMUNICATIONS.

The following communication from his Honor the Mayor was presented and received:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, CITY HALL,
Jersey City, Dec. 8, 1874. }

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen of Jersey City:

Gentlemen—It is with a feeling of deep regret that I am compelled to announce the death of Hon. Dudley S. Gregory, who during his life of usefulness held a great many positions of trust and confidence, and who performed the duties of Chief Magistrate of our City for five years, and was ever foremost in all enterprises connected with the welfare and prosperity of our city.

I would therefore suggest that your honorable body take suitable action in relation to his death.

Respectfully yours,

HENRY TRAPHAGEN, Mayor.

The following preamble and resolution in relation thereto were offered by Alderman Tilden:

Whereas, It has pleased the Almighty to remove from our midst the Honorable Dudley S. Gregory, for several years the chief magistrate of our city, and one who has held several high and honorable positions in the service of our city and country, and whose public spirit and enterprise has secured to our city many advantages of great public benefit,

Resolved, That in his death we recognize the loss of one who has ever been foremost in all and every enterprise calculated to enhance the wealth and prosperity of our city and its citizens, and one whose advice and counsel was often sought and heeded, with beneficial results, yet one who living the allotted time of man's existence, has closed a well spent, active life, leaving a name long to be remembered as one of those who first conceived, always encouraged, and added, much to the settlement, growth and prosperity of our city.

Resolved, That to the family of the deceased we tender our sympathies, commending them to Him who can best assuage their grief in this time of sorrow.

Resolved, That the flag be displayed at half-mast from the City Hall until after the day of the funeral.

The preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted.

The City Clerk laid before the Board the following communication from his Honor the Mayor, filed in the City Clerk's office on the 7th inst. at one o'clock P. M., and the same was received, read and ordered to be entered at large on the journal of proceedings.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, CITY HALL, }
Jersey City, Dec. 7th, 1874. }

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen of Jersey City:

Gentlemen—I herewith return to you without my signature, the annexed ordinance "to authorize the Erie Railway Company to lay rails across Pavonia avenue, Provost and Tenth streets, for the better accommodation of business over said road," passed by your honorable body November 24th, and presented to me for approval November 27th last, for the following reasons, viz:

Because the laying of tracks across Pavonia avenue, Provost and Tenth streets will not only interfere with the public travel, but will necessarily close up said streets. The crossing of Pavonia avenue by the Erie Company will cut off the access to the Ferry and destroy one of the few remaining highways to the river.

The only remaining thoroughfares leading to the river between the northerly and southerly lines of Jersey City, are Montgomery street, First street, (formerly called South Eighth) and Pavonia avenue, and by allowing the Railroad Company to lay tracks across Pavonia avenue will virtually close up said avenue and will leave no outlet for that portion of our city from the Hoboken line on the north to First street on the south, and will interfere with the business interest of that part of the city.

Respectfully yours,

HENRY TRAPHAGEN, Mayor.

On motion of Alderman McLaughlin the communication was laid upon the table.

OFFICER'S COMMUNICATIONS.

The following opinion from the Corporation Counsel on concurrent resolution of Board of Public Works, of the 2d inst., and referred to said officer at said date by the Board of Aldermen, was presented, received, and ordered filed.

CORPORATION COUNSEL'S OFFICE.

Jersey City, N. J., Feb. 8, 1875.

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen:

Gentlemen—The resolution of the Board of Public Works expressing the judgment that the whole expense of building the centre pier for drawbridge over Washington street, as well as the expense of constructing the abutments for bridge, should be borne by the city at large and paid by general tax, sent to your Board for concurrence and by you referred for opinion. I have considered as to the legal question involved in the reference.

As a matter of fact the preamble to the resolution recites that, on November 12, 1872, the Board of Aldermen concurred in a resolution passed by the Board of Works October 29, 1872, providing for the expense of the abutments, to be borne by the city at large.

A centre pier became necessary to support a drawbridge, and while the Chosen Freeholders of the county undertook to provide the bridge at the expense of the county, it was then understood that, because of the great and particular benefit such bridge would be to the N. J. Central Railroad Company, that the railroad company would be at the expense of building the centre pier, or would contribute largely toward defraying that expense. Whatever the facts and the determination were at that time, respecting the expense of a centre pier, the city authorities made no provision for such expense, while they did make express provision for the expense of the abutments, thereby leaving the fair and reasonable inference that the city was not to be at the expense of a centre pier.

It now appears the N. J. Central Railroad Company, declining to assist in defraying the expense of this improvement, and the Board of Chosen Freeholders being unwilling to furnish or provide anything beyond the bridge or superstructure, that, in order to make this needed public improvement, it becomes requisite for the city authorities to make some suitable provision for the centre pier or support for the drawbridge.

To this end the Board of Public Works has sent to your Board for concurrence the resolution in question. As to the question whether the improvement shall be made as proposed, will, under the Charter provisions depend upon the action thereon of the Board of Finance and Taxation, subject to the approval of the Mayor. The question (under the resolution for concurrence now before your Board) whether the expense of this improvement, so far as it is to be made by the city, should be borne by the city at large and paid by general tax, it is competent for your Board to pass on and determine. The jurisdiction conferred on your Board by section 52 of the City Charter, and your right thereunder to act in this matter, have not been taken away by any subsequent legislation, so far as I am aware.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. A. LEWIS,
Corporation Counsel.
